Persons offering are required to make separate offers for the delivery of each kind of Coal at each of the yards specified, and to state the price for each kind distinctly, that separate contracts may be made for each navy-yard, and for each quality, if desired by the department. The price asked for the anthracite Coal must be for the ten of 2,240 pounds, and that for the bituminous must be per bushed of five pecks, as weighed or measured at the yards where delivered; and when delivered, antisfactory evidence must be furnished that they were taken from the mines or pits specified in the contracts.

Bonds, in half the amount of each contract, will be required for their faithful performance, in addition to a reservation of ten per centum upon all bills which may be approved; which reserved ten per centum will not be paid until the completion of the contract to the ausfaction of the respective commandants at the yards of delivery.
